#RMN_Asks: NAGAPATI KA BALA SA MGA TESTIMONIYA SANG 18 BAGMEN/BODYGUARDS?

Padayon nga ginapamatian sang grupo ni Senator Alan Peter Cayetano ang mga testimoniya sang 18 ka mga nagpakilala nga anay bodyguards kag bagmen ni former Cong. Zaldy Co.

Madamo sang mga ngalan sang mga personalidad kag opisyales sang gobyerno nga ginmensyonar sang natumod nga mga bodyguards nga suno sa ila, nagbaton sang minaleta nga kwarta gikan sa pondo sang flood control projects.

Apang sa pagpadayon sang mga hearings kag press conference nga ila ginapatigayon, nagsaligmato ukon wala nagasantu ang mga pahayag sang natumod nga mga tawo. Nagapabag-o-bag-o pa ang mga detalye sini kag may mga ngalan nga ginatinluan samtang may yara man sang ginadugang sa ila listahan.

Sa karon, wala pa sang ebidensya nga ginapresentar ang 18 ka mga bodyguards nga makapamatuod sang ila mga alegasyon sa natungdan nga mga tawo.

BOBET BATERBONIA, MAY DUGO SANG ILONGGO

Barangay Santo Domingo, Barotac Viejo, Iloilo, mourns!

This is the place where Bobet's grandfather originated. Here is a brief biographical account detailing his journey to Agusan del Sur:

Bobet's grandfather, the late Saul Baldevarona Baterbonia was born and spent his early childhood in Barangay Santo Domingo, Barotac Viejo, Iloilo. He is one of the four (4) children of Presentacion "Pesin" Baldevarona - Baterbonia and Alfonso Blaza Baterbonia, both a native of Barangay Santo Domingo, Barotac Viejo. Iloilo.

Upon reaching bachelorhood, he was brought by his cousin Antonio "Tonying" Baterbonia Baldonasa to Agusan del Sur because Tonying, who had already been working as a helper for the couple Loida "Lowing" B. Baterbonia and Surveyor Vicente "Itik" C. Rosal, returned to Santo Domingo, Barotac Viejo, Iloilo to convince his cousin Saul to work there as well. Fortunately, Saul Baldevarona Baterbonia became a member of the Philippine Constabulary (PC) in Agusan del Sur and later married Meliora Mondejar.

Saul and Meliora were blessed with six (6) children, namely: 1.John Rey M. Baterbonia, 2.Jerry M. Baterbonia, 3.Sandy M. Baterbonia., 4.Chanda M.Baterbonia 5.Norman M. Baterbonia & 6. Rene Mondejar Baterbonia (Bobet's father).

Three (3) of Saul's siblings were left behind here in Barangay Santo Domingo, Barotac Viejo, Iloilo, namely: Ninio B. Baterbonia, the late Elsie B. Baterbonia, and the late Saulo "Nono Abal" B. Baterbonia, o Ninio "Nonoy Ninio" B. Baterbonia, the eldest and Saul's surviving brother, married Nenita Villegas and has 6 children, namely: 1. Nelyn Baterbonia Barros, 2. Nepthalie Baterbonia, 3. Marlou Baterbonia, 4. Maribel Baterbonia, 5. Ninio Jr. Baterbonia, & 6. Nenette Baterbonia Lucena.

Jun 19, 2026 09:01:23

o The late Elsie "Inday Elsie" B. Baterbonia, 2nd from the eldest and Saul's only sister, remained single.

o The late Saulo "Nono Abal" B. Baterbonia, Saul's twin brother, married Mercedita Agramon and has 13 children, namely: 1. Sammy Baterbonia, 2. Arnel Baterbonia, 3. Jerry Baterbonia, 4. Nora Baterbonia Escanillas, 5. Revena Baterbonia, 6. Analyn Baterbonia, 7. Mary Jane Baterbonia Gilbaliga, 8. Lelia Baterbonia, 9. Amer Baterbonia, 10. Janice Baterbonia, 11. SM Baterbonia, 12. Marissa Baterbonia Agner & 13. Jepcy Baterbonia;

Hence, most of the residents here in Santo Domingo, Barotac Viejo, Iloilo are close blood relatives of "Bobet".

Bobet's rise on social media brought immense pride even far beyond Agusan Del Sur, Davao, and Iloilo. He is one of the promising basketball players in the Philippines. His award as Palarong Pambansa 2025 MVP and his role in securing a gold medal for the Philippine team at the ASEAN School Games 2025 in Brunei Darussalam made us all Ilonggo relatives proud. We held high hopes of watching him compete in the PBA.

Unfortunately, we were deeply devastated to hear the tragic news about our dear "Bobet". Those aspirations were cut short by selfish, ill-intentioned and demonic souls!

Our family's grief is beyond words. It really broke our hearts!

We, Ilonggo blood relatives will fight for truth and justice!!!

Throwback to my days as Mayor of Anilao.

I met with Sen. Win Gatchalian, then Chairperson of the Senate Committee on Basic Education, to advocate for additional classrooms for our town, particularly for Anilao Central Elementary School.

I vividly remember enthusiastically explaining why Anilao needed additional classrooms. Cong. Ferj, ever supportive and always having my back, was quietly smiling in the background because, apparently, I sounded less like a mayor making a request and more like someone giving a lecture to a senator. 😅

What stayed with me was how patiently Senator Win listened. He looked beyond my age and focused on the needs of our community and the future of our students.

For a young mayor at the time, being heard and taken seriously meant a lot.

Thank you, Senator Win, for your support to Anilao through the years. Congratulations on your election as Senate President, and best wishes as you lead the Senate in the 20th Congress. 🇵🇭

It wasn't the diplomacy that caught people's attention.

During a meeting between Russian President Vladimir Putin and Philippine President Ferdinand Marcos Jr., a brief and unexpected moment stole the spotlight. Before their conversation could begin, Putin noticed that Marcos had not yet put on his translation earpiece.

Video of the exchange quickly circulated online, showing Putin reminding Marcos to wear the earpiece before their conversation could proceed. The Russian leader then appeared to wait patiently, watching with an amused expression as Marcos tried to figure out how to put it on. At one point, Putin even demonstrated how it should be placed. The lighthearted moment continued until Marcos finally got the earpiece on correctly.

According to observers, Putin responded with a loud and cheerful "yes" once the device was in place, seemingly relieved that the Philippine President finally managed to figure out how to use it.

While the meeting itself focused on official matters, many online users found themselves talking more about the unscripted interaction

facebook

While the meeting itself focused on official matters, many online users found themselves talking more about the unscripted interaction than the politics. Some saw it as a humorous human moment between two heads of state, while others focused on the awkwardness of the situation.

In a world where world leaders are usually seen through carefully staged photos and formal speeches, it is often these small, unexpected moments that people remember long after the meeting ends.

Bida na naman ang hometown ko.

Siyam na opisyal at empleyado ng LTO Butuan ang naaresto dahil sa alegasyon ng extortion. Ayon sa mga ulat, humihingi umano sila ng P2,000 sa bawat truck na dumadaan.

Kung mapapatunayan, hindi lamang ito simpleng kaso ng katiwalian. Isa itong uri ng pang-aabuso na direktang nagpapahirap sa mga negosyante, driver, at ordinaryong mamamayan. Ang bawat iligal na singil ay kalaunan ipinapasa rin sa presyo ng mga produkto at serbisyo na binabayaran ng publiko.

JUSTICE FOR JAMESON🙏🐾 LAPD CHIEF says there will be a FULL investigation after an officer KILLED a family's dog.💔

After receiving immense community outrage and a demand for accountability and justice, Chief of Police Jim McDonnell is promising a thorough investigation on what TRULY happened the night of June 13, 2026 when 2-year-old Jameson was fatally shot.

For context, Jameson is a golden retriever, Saint Bernard, and poodle mix.

Jameson and his family were celebrating the Knicks winning the NBA championship Saturday night inside their Canoga Park apartment. Spirits were high. Jameson even had on a Knicks shirt.

The neighbors called the police to report a noise complaint of a woman screaming inside her apartment.

14+ officers and a helicopter responded to the call.

According to the police, they asked Jameson's owner to secure him after knocking on her door, but Jameson somehow made his way outside, he "charged at the officers" and that is when he was shot and killed.

Jun 19, 2026 10:18:50

However, Jameson's owner and the neighbors are saying that he did nothing wrong and he did not deserve to be shot.

The most heartbreaking part is watching Jameson's mom cry next to his lifeless body, in his Knicks jersey, as all of the officers just stare at her with zero sympathy. Multiple officers look annoyed.

One officer finally gives her kind words and offers his condolences, but even he took too long to react.

The identity of the shooting officer has yet to be revealed.

Here is Chief Jim McDonnell's full statement:

"In the past few days, many of you have contacted the Los Angeles Police Department regarding the shooting death of a dog during an encounter with one of our officers.

This is an incredibly tragic incident.

Jun 19, 2026 10:18:55

The loss of a pet is deeply personal. For many, a dog is not simply an animal; it is a companion, a source of comfort, and a member of the family.

There is no incident more serious than when an officer fires a service weapon.

For this reason, the LAPD has a specialized division of investigators specifically trained to handle these types of incidents. A thorough, multi-layered examination of this weekend's incident in Canoga Park is already underway, but it will take time to ensure fairness, transparency, and accountability.

LAPD officers face unknown dangers on a daily basis, but I expect them to exercise sound judgment, restraint, and respect for life whenever possible. That expectation is reflected in our training, policies, and specific guidance on encounters with dogs.

All those factors will be carefully reviewed as part of this investigation.

We at the LAPD know the community is hurting.

Our job is clear: to complete a full and comprehensive review, to follow the facts wherever they lead, and to communicate openly with the public as we learn more.

Jun 19, 2026 10:18:58

Our job is clear: to complete a full and comprehensive review, to follow the facts wherever they lead, and to communicate openly with the public as we learn more.

My commitment to the truth and to all Angelenos remains unwavering."

Do you think that the officer should be held accountable?

Who was wrong here?

Some people are actually blaming the dog owner, while others believe that the officer is fully responsible.

A full investigation should reveal where everything went wrong.🙏 because I don't believe that Jameson deserved that even if he did run to the officers. There are many ways to handle a dog without immediately shooting them. It raises concerns for how this officer would behave towards an actual person.

Nobody said Alan Cayetano personally spent or pocketed ₱25M a day. The point is simpler: the Senate has a daily operating cost, and under Alan's short leadership, that cost kept running while the institution was stuck in political paralysis instead of producing legislative work.
Yes, the Senate also spends money under Win Gatchalian. Congratulations, natuklasan niya ang fixed operating cost. Pero hindi porket may gastos ang Senado under every Senate President, pare-pareho na ang performance nila.
Ang tanong: habang gumagastos ang Senado ng roughly ₱25M a day, may produktong lumalabas ba?
Under Alan, the issue is 28 days of dysfunction costing taxpayers an estimated ₱700M in institutional spending. That is opportunity cost. That is public money funding salaries, operations, hearings, offices, staff, utilities, security, and legislative machinery while the chamber was consumed by leadership drama.
At ₱1.5M to ₱2M per classroom, that ₱700M could have meant around 350 to 460 classrooms.
So no, "Win also spent ₱25M a day" is not a comeback. It is an accidental admission that every wasted day in the Senate is expensive.
The issue is not that the Senate has a budget.
The issue is that under Alan, the meter was running while the work was not. Reading comprehension also apparently adjourned.

DID YOU KNOW?

The late basketball standout Rene "Bobet" Baterbonia, 18, who tragically died in a drowning incident on June 8 during the Blue Eagles' team-building activity in Aurora, carried proud Ilonggo roots traced to Barangay Santo Domingo, Barotac Viejo, Iloilo.

Baterbonia was the son of Rene Baterbonia Sr. and Rovelyn Noja and the grandson of Saul Baldevarona Baterbonia and Meliora Baterbonia. His grandfather, Saul, was a native of Santo Domingo who later settled in Agusan del Sur. Some of their relatives continue to reside in Santo Domingo.

The promising young basketball player gained national recognition after being named Most Valuable Player in the 2025 Palarong Pambansa. He also helped the Philippine team capture the gold medal at the ASEAN School Games in Brunei Darussalam.

BAHA SA STA. MARIA BULACAN

Umabot ng halos bewang ang rumaragasang baha sa ilang lugar sa Northville 5a brgy. Caysio Sta. Maria Bulacan noong hating gabi ng June 13, 2026 sa kasagsagan ng malakas na ulan na may kasama kulog at kidlat.

Nawa po ay maayos na ang mga drainage o mga daluyan ng tubig ulan sa inyong lugar para hindi napo maulit ang insidente.

‘TAMA NAMAN… PERO OUTPUT ANG PINAG-UUSAPAN’

Sen. Ping Lacson's reaction to Sen. Alan Peter Cayetano's reply to his statement yesterday, June 18, alleging that around P700 million in public funds was wasted in less than a month of Cayetano’s leadership as Senate President.

Cayetano said Senate operations cost P25 million per day regardless of who is Senate President.

Ano kayang thought process ng taong ninormalize yung AI-generated outputs?...

Stop normalizing the use of AI-generated pubmats, posters, logo.
Creativity should not be reduced to a single prompt. Art is not only about what looks pleasing; it is about the intention, emotion, and meaning placed into it.
Stop normalizing designs made without real effort. Behind every real output is time, thought, and a person who chose each detail with purpose.
Respect the artists who actually think, create, and design. Their effort should never be erased just because technology can imitate what the human heart worked hard to make.

No one else in human history can say this—only Mary was present at both the birth and the death of Jesus Christ.
She witnessed the wonder of the Incarnation: wrapping her newborn Son in swaddling clothes and laying Him in a lowly manger in Bethlehem.
And she stood at the foot of the Cross on Calvary: watching her beloved Son suffer and die for the salvation of the world, her heart pierced with a sword of sorrow.
This is how God elevates Mary.
By making her the only person on earth who witnessed both sacred moments—from the joy of the stable to the agony of the Crucifixion—the Lord highlights her unique and irreplaceable role in the story of our redemption. Her unwavering "yes," her steadfast faith, and her maternal love remained constant through it all.
Mary's life beautifully bookends the earthly life of Jesus, showing us the depth of her devotion and the honor God bestows upon her as our Mother.
"Behold, your mother." (John 19:27)
From the Cross, Jesus gave us His Mother — the same Mother who held Him as a baby now stands with us in our trials.

From the Cross, Jesus gave us His Mother — the same Mother who held Him as a baby now stands with us in our trials.

Let us pray:

O Mary, Mother of the Infant Jesus and Queen of Martyrs, you who alone witnessed both His birth and His death, intercede for us. Help us to remain faithful like you in every season of life. Amen.

Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us! 🙏

TRILLANES: DUTERTE UMANO ANG TUNAY NA MAY-ARI NG MGA HELICOPTER AT PRIVATE JET NI QUIBOLOY

Nagbato ng panibagong alegasyon si Antonio Trillanes IV laban kina Rodrigo Duterte at Apollo Quiboloy kaugnay ng umano'y pagmamay-ari ng ilang private jet at helicopter.

Sa panayam kay Karen Davila, sinabi ni Trillanes na natuklasan umano nila na ang mga aircraft na nakapangalan kay Quiboloy ay para kay Duterte.

"Ang na-uncover namin, yung mga private jet or helicopter na binibili ni Quiboloy, sa kanya 'yun, kay Duterte," pahayag niya.

Binigyang-diin din ni Trillanes na mas madalas umanong gamitin ni Duterte ang mga naturang sasakyang panghimpapawid kaysa kay Quiboloy, dahilan upang pagdudahan niya ang tunay na may-ari ng mga ito.

During an official visit to Seoul on June 3, 2018, Philippine President Rodrigo Duterte sparked international controversy by calling an overseas Filipino worker (OFW) on stage and kissing her on the lips. The woman was identified as Bea Kim, a mother of two married to a South Korean national. She later stated in an interview that she was thrilled by the encounter and felt there was "no malice" in the act. Inquirer.net +1

‘MAGSAMPA NA KAYO KAAGAD NG KASO, HINDI YUNG ANG DAMING PRESS CONFERENCES’

Retired Marine colonel and Medal of Valor recipient Ariel Querubin cast doubt on the claims made by the group of self-described bagmen allegedly linked to former congressman Zaldy Co, questioning why they only came forward now if their allegations were true.

“Kung totoo ang mga sinasabi nila, bakit ngayon lang lumabas? Alam pala nilang nakaw pala ’yun? If you have very strong moral fibers, ’di ka pwedeng mag-succumb sa kahit anong ilegal,” Querubin said during an interview on Ted Failon at DJ ChaChang on True FM on June 18.

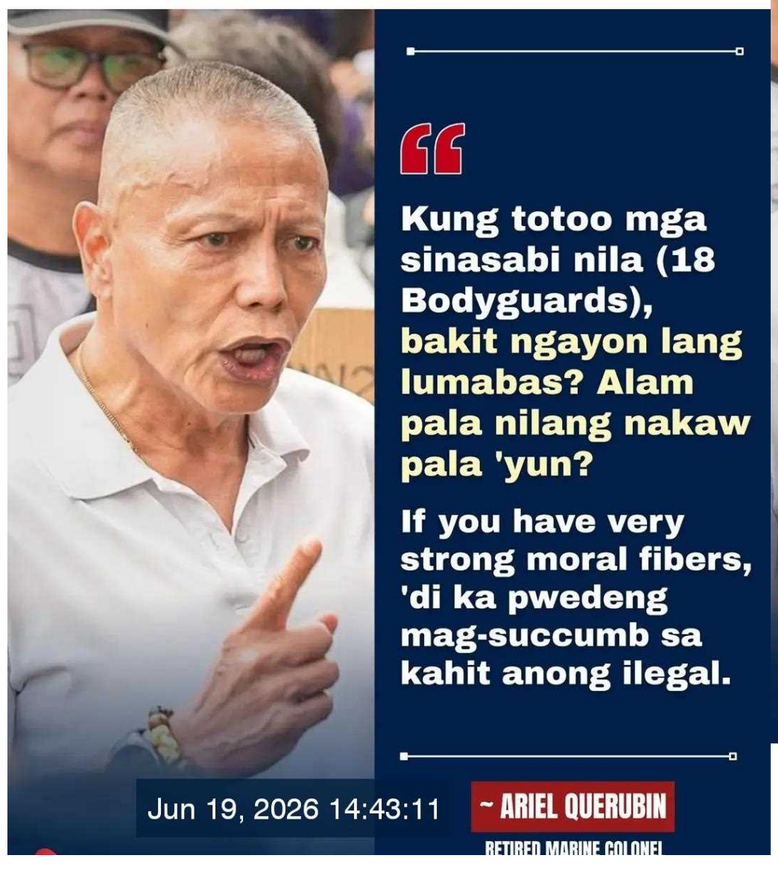
The retired military officer also challenged the group to file formal complaints if they possess credible evidence instead of repeatedly holding press conferences.

“Kung talagang totoo… magsampa na kayo kaagad ng kaso. Gamitin ninyo ‘yung nalalaman ninyo na sabi nga ninyo totoo, then isampa n’yo na. Hindi ’yung ang daming press conferences,” he said.

Querubin further expressed skepticism over

Querubin further expressed skepticism over what he described as inconsistencies in the group’s statements, adding, “I wasn’t born yesterday. Everytime na ganito na may mga propaganda, they’re really up to something.”

Despite his doubts, Querubin said he supports efforts to summon the alleged bagmen to future hearings of the Senate Blue Ribbon Committee as part of the ongoing investigation into the alleged flood control scandal.



Kung totoo mga sinasabi nila (18 Bodyguards), bakit ngayon lang lumabas? Alam pala nilang nakaw pala 'yun?

REMAINS OF A SUPERNOVA IN THE MIDDLE OF OUR GALAXY?

LOOK: Data from Chandra Observatory has uncovered possible remains of a supernova in the middle of the Milky Way galaxy.

If confirmed, this supernova piece would be one of the closest to the galaxy's central black hole that was ever found.

A highly reliable source informed me that ICC arrest warrants against Senator Bong Go and two former police officers have already been issued.
Wala na ba talagang katapusan ang administrasyong ito sa paggamit ng ICC bilang political weapon laban sa kanilang mga kalaban?

LEAVE ME ALONE, Senator Trillanes. The last time a person irked me, I made sure to make it difficult for him to bring me down and Speaker Boy Nograles lost that election and was a billion pesos poorer. Like Speaker Alvarez, my advice to you is not to think of me, speak of my name, not even a whisper of Inday Sara from your ugly lips. Leave me in peace in Davao City or else you and your friends will spend more than a billion in the 2022 Presidential elections just to make me insignificant. Let me repeat, do not bother me and my slot will be available for a yellow Senator for the 2019 elections. President Duterte imagines you will be shot, on the other hand, I will make sure you are alive and in pain. I have been described as heartless by my mother, please do not anger me so that you may remain relevant for the future generation. And you should listen to my mother. GMA News
When a standard attorney curses on Twitter, the heavy gavel of the law falls.
But when a Duterte attorney openly boasts about leaving a political rival 'alive and in pain,' the judiciary suddenly loses its voice.

Atty. Levito Baligod, legal counsel for the Malita Boys, clarified that Senator Francis 'Kiko' Pangilinan was never accused by the former bodyguards of Zaldy Co of receiving "maleta" money. He explained that a photo of Pangilinan and his wife, Sharon Cuneta, posing with employees of Misibis Aviation, was mistakenly projected on the screen during their press conference.

Linda Walker (Chinese name: 林思望; Lin Si Wang) is a fictional character and the main protagonist of the Chinese vertical micro-drama series The Heiress Who Won With Brains.[a] The character was played by Chinese actress Zhang Yingfei. She gained online popularity in the Philippines for her intelligence quotient of 180 and a record-breaking score of 719 in a mock exam.

Fictional character biography [edit source]

Season one [edit source]

Linda Walker[b] comes from a poor family in Brookshire.[c] She possesses an intelligence quotient (IQ) of 180. People call her an "academic weapon" because of her strong academic record.[2]

She finds out that she was the real daughter of the wealthy Lewis family in the Capital City.[d] She had been switched at birth with Nancy[e] (played by Che Chao Yan),[1] who had been raised by the Lewis family for 18 years.[3] Upon returning to her real parents, Linda faces tension inside the household, as Nancy resents her presence and the family shows clear favoritism toward the daughter they had long believed to be theirs.[2]

Linda remains determined to reach her goals. As the rightful daughter of the Lewis family, she secures a residency permit (hukou) in Capital City, which allows her to study at a prestigious university. She proves

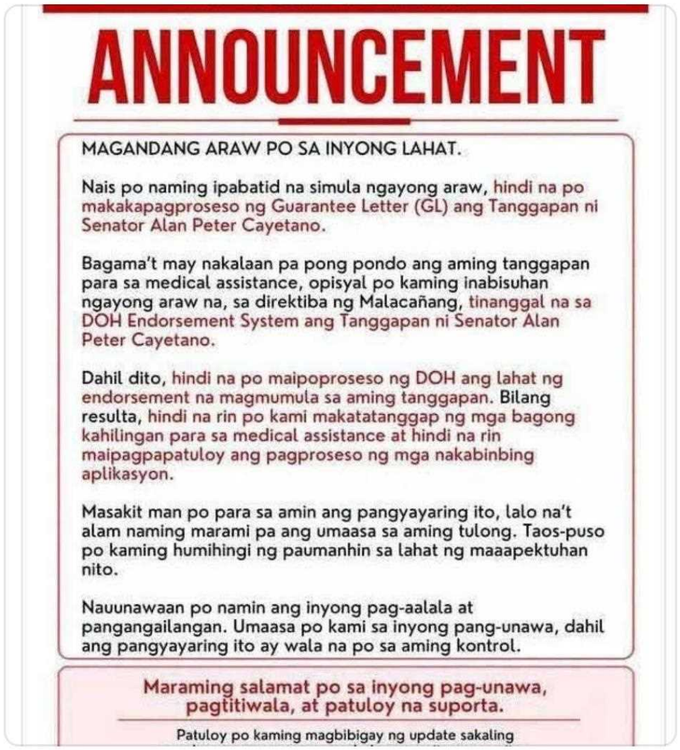
OPISINA NI SEN. ALAN PETER CAYETANO, TINANGGALAN NG PALASYO NG PONDO PARA SA MEDICAL ASSISTANCE.

HINDI LANG OPISINA NI SEN. ALAN PETER CAY... See more



ANNOUNCEMENT

MAGANDANG ARAW PO SA INYONG LAHAT.

Nais po naming ipabatid na simula ngayong araw, hindi na po makakapagproseso ng Guarantee Letter (GL) ang Tanggapan ni Senator Alan Peter Cayetano.

Bagama't may nakalaan pa pong pondo ang aming tanggapan para sa medical assistance, opisyal po kaming inabisuhan ngayong araw na, sa direktiba ng Malacañang, tinanggal na sa DOH Endorsement System ang Tanggapan ni Senator Alan Peter Cayetano.

Dahil dito, hindi na po maipoproseso ng DOH ang lahat ng endorsement na magmumula sa aming tanggapan. Bilang resulta, hindi na rin po kami makatatanggap ng mga bagong kahilingan para sa medical assistance at hindi na rin maipagpapatuloy ang pagproseso ng mga nakabinbing aplikasyon.

Masakit man po para sa amin ang pangyayaring ito, lalo na't alam naming marami pa ang umaasa sa aming tulong. Taos-puso po kaming humihingi ng paumanhin sa lahat ng maaapektuhan nito.

Nauunawaan po namin ang inyong pag-aalala at pangangailangan. Umaasa po kami sa inyong pang-unawa, dahil ang pangyayaring ito ay wala na po sa aming kontrol.

The water level at Angat Dam continues to decline despite recent rainfall, raising concerns about water supply security as the reservoir approaches critical levels. Angat Dam is the primary source of raw water for Metro Manila and also supports irrigation and hydroelectric power generation.

Recent reports showed the reservoir falling below its minimum operating level of 180 meters above sea level. In late May 2026, the water level was reported at around 173.4 meters, while subsequent monitoring placed it near 173 meters, significantly below the normal operating threshold but still above the critical level of 160 meters.

Scientists explain that rainfall in Metro Manila does not automatically translate into substantial inflow into Angat Reservoir. What matters most is the amount and distribution of rain falling across the Angat Watershed, where the reservoir collects water. Even when nearby areas experience rain, reservoir levels may continue declining if inflows remain lower than water withdrawals and evaporation losses.

According to forecasts from Philippine Atmospheric Geophysical and Astronomical Service Administration, water levels were expected to continue decreasing slightly during

According to forecasts from Philippine Atmospheric Geophysical and Astronomical Services Administration, water levels were expected to continue decreasing slightly during parts of the dry season, although projections suggested the reservoir would likely remain above the critical 160-meter threshold through June.

In Hydrology and Water Resources Engineering, declining reservoir levels are closely monitored because they affect drinking water supply, agriculture, and energy production. Water experts have urged the public to conserve water as prolonged dry conditions and the possible development of El Niño could place additional pressure on water resources in the coming months.

The situation highlights the importance of watershed protection, efficient water use, and long-term planning to ensure a stable water supply for millions of Filipinos who depend on the Angat-Ipo-La Mesa water system.

Prinesent yung picture niya doon... Walang sinabi yung mga [maleta boys]. Kaya sabi ko doon sa nag-o-operate ng mga presentation ng slides, 'Move forward, move forward. Hindi yan...' Mali yung prinesent na pictures eh.

As graduates and alumni of Ateneo De Manila University (ADMU), we join in the call for more transparency to what truly happened to ADMU basketball players, Rene and Divine.

As parents who have 4 school aged children, we expect our kids to go home safe from school and school related events outside of school that we allowed our kids to go to. If in any instance there are accidents or things that happened, we expect to be informed immediately and to get all relevant information to understand the situation better.

We commend Senator Bam Aquino for bringing this issue to the halls of the Senate and for calling for an inquiry on the matter. Whatever the results of the inquiry will be will help clarify matters and even help improve legislation like The Safe Spaces Act.

May all learn from what happened. May justice be served (if proven that it is not just an accident). May improvements in terms of rules and regulations as well as proper communciations be implemented. May existing laws be amended to protect individuals and families. May the families who grieve and the ADMU community that is affected be consoled. May our fellow Ateneans who went ahead of us, Rene and Divine, rest in peace. Again, condolence to their families and to the ADMU community.

After nearly 14 years as prime minister, the Dutch leader stepped down in the most Dutch way possible.

He got on his bicycle and rode away.

Mark Rutte served as prime minister of the Netherlands from 2010 to 2024, making him one of the longest-serving leaders in Europe.

After handing over power to his successor, Dick Schoof, there was no grand exit.

No huge motorcade.

No dramatic farewell.

No luxury car waiting outside.

Rutte simply said goodbye, got on his bike, and cycled away from the government buildings in The Hague like an ordinary commuter.

The moment went viral because it looked almost unbelievable.

A man who had led a country for nearly 14 years leaving office the same way millions of Dutch people go to work every day.

2026-06-19 17:15:51

Quietly.

Casually.

On two wheels.

It was a very different image of power.

Not flashy.

Not untouchable.

Not surrounded by ego.

Just a former prime minister riding off into the city.

Whatever people think of his politics, the exit said something powerful.

In some countries, leaders cling to power.

In the Netherlands, one handed it over, waved goodbye, and cycled away.

GRADES OF DR. JOSE RIZAL 🇵🇭

LOOK: The University of Santo Tomas (UST) shared a photo of his transcript of grades during his stay: preparatory course for theology and law in 1877, pre-med in 1878, and four years of medicine until 1882 in the UST Faculty of Medicine & Surgery.

According to #UST's post, "The national hero, Dr. Jose Rizal, spent much of his medical preparation in the UST Faculty of Medicine & Surgery. The famed historian, Rev. fr. Fidel Villarroel, O.P., in his magnum opus “A History of the University of Santo Tomas” devoted Chapter VI of Volume II to “Jose Rizal as a Medical Student and an Alumnus.”

"After taking the pre-law course in 1877, “he changed his mind—or his parents did—and opted for the career of medicine.” While several of Rizal’s classmates “one by one fell by the roadside,” by the fourth year, only seven medical students of the year remained, and Rizal was one of them, ending that year in second place.

"From Rizal’s twenty-one subjects in UST, he received one “passing grade,” eight “good,” six “very good,” and six “excellent.” "
